

PRESS RELEASE

18/09/15

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Photographers Collective is delighted to announce their fourth joint exhibition: Collection 4. Representing the work of photographers based in Edinburgh and beyond, Collection 4 features the work of Collective founding members Albie Clark, Jon Lee, Susie Lowe and Susan Young, as well as Collective members Kevin McCollum, Ronnie Baxter and Paul T Cowan.

Collection 4 continues The Collective's efforts in representing Scottish photographic talent, and we are proud to introduce our three latest Showcase members: Raymond Keith, Gregor Schmatz and Kevin Gilchrist.

More information on them and their work can be found on the The Photographers Collective website.

THE VENUE

The Chapel, Summerhall, Hope Park Terrace entrance, Edinburgh, EH9 1PL

Tuesday 13th October - Sunday 25th October 2015

Viewing hours: 12pm – 6pm.

PRIVATE VIEW: Thursday 15th October 6-8pm.

PLEASE NOTE: The venue is NOT wheelchair-accessible.

All prints will be for sale at reasonable prices, presenting an amazing opportunity to acquire unique photographic work as well as supporting future Collective ventures.

ABOUT THE COLLECTIVE

Inspired by visits to les Rencontres d'Arles, a world-renowned annual French photography festival, The Photographers Collective was established to nurture and promote the talent of photographers working in Edinburgh and further afield. The Collective's primary motivation is to exhibit photographic work in and around Scotland, utilising existing spaces as well as showing in interesting venues. Get in touch with us at info@thephotographerscollective.com to see how you can get involved.

Drawing from a range of creative fields, The Collective's aims are:

to INSPIRE, to INNOVATE, to EXHIBIT, to COLLABORATE.

MEDIA ENQUIRIES

Albie Clark

info@thephotographerscollective.com

07758 292319